Bylaws of the Museum of Anthropology Advisory Board
(as amended January 20, 2010)

ARTICLE I - NAME
Section 1. This organization shall be known as the Museum of Anthropology Advisory Board.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE
Section 1. The purpose of this organization shall be to advise the Director and staff of the Museum of Anthropology in how the Museum can best fulfill its Mission: The Museum of Anthropology at Wake Forest University creates awareness of global cultures by collecting, protecting, managing, and exhibiting archaeological artifacts, ethnographic objects, and visual arts of past and present peoples, and providing opportunities for intercultural learning. Members of the Advisory Board shall serve as advocates for the Museum of Anthropology to the University and the wider community, provide feedback from the University and community, serve as liaisons with the Museum's constituencies and act together as an independent sounding board.

Section 2. This organization shall assist the Director and staff in the solicitation of collections, gifts and grants from individuals, corporations, foundations and government agencies.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. The Museum of Anthropology Advisory Board shall constitute the only membership.

Section 2. The number of members of the Advisory Board shall be no more than fifteen. The Director of the Museum of Anthropology and the President of the Wake Forest Anthropology Club shall serve as ex-officio members of the Advisory Board.

Section 3. The entire voting power of the Museum of Anthropology Advisory Board shall be vested in its membership, each of whom shall be entitled to one vote in electing officers and in the transaction of other business of the Advisory Board.

Section 4. The term of a member of the Advisory Board shall be three years. A member shall be elected to a maximum of two consecutive three-year terms, but then must be off the Advisory Board for at least one year before being eligible for additional terms.

Section 5. Terms shall be staggered, with one-third of the members of the Advisory Board facing election each year. One- and two-year terms shall not be counted in limiting consecutive Advisory Board membership to two terms.

Section 6. If for any reason a member can no longer serve, the seat is considered vacant. The member is eligible for reappointment under Article III, Section 4. An Advisory Board seat vacated during a term shall be filled by election at the next Advisory Board meeting. A partial term filling a vacancy shall not be counted in limiting consecutive Advisory Board membership to two terms.

Section 7. Members of the Advisory Board shall subscribe to the Code of Ethics of the American Association of Museums.

ARTICLE IV - MEETINGS
Section 1. A minimum of four Advisory Board meetings shall be held annually, at a time and place to be designated by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at any time at the direction of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V - ATTENDANCE
Section 1. Any member absent without excuse from three Advisory Board meetings in succession or four meetings in any twelve-month period shall be automatically terminated. A member shall notify a member of the Executive Committee in advance of a scheduled meeting to request an excused absence.

Section 2. If such member requests reinstatement within two months, the Board Management Committee may reinstate the seat, though this provision shall not be used for any member more than once per term.

ARTICLE VI - QUORUM
Section 1. A majority of the membership of the Advisory Board or any committee shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VII - NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS
Section 1. Nominations for election to available Advisory Board seats and offices shall be made by the Board Management Committee.

Section 2. New members shall be elected by a majority vote of a quorum of the established membership of the Advisory Board at the meeting prior to the Advisory Board’s anniversary.
