Spirits of the Hopi

Kachinas are used by the Hopi people to portray the spirits that they believe surround them. Looking at Hopi kachinas, students will learn what they represent, how they are created, and why they are used. Using kachinas in the Museum's collection as inspiration, participants will create their own kachina.

Where: Museum of Anthropology at Wake Forest University

When: Monday, July 28, 2014

Time: 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Ages: Children ages 12-16

Cost: $45.00 (MOA Friends $30.00)

Fee includes all supplies and a snack. Participants need to bring a bag lunch. The workshop is limited to 10 participants. Registration and payment for the program guarantees a spot.

For more information, call 758-5282 or email moa@wfu.edu.
Registration Form

Spirits of the Hopi Workshop 2014

July 28, 2014

Child’s name____________________________________________________________

Age ______________

Parent’s names__________________________________________________________

Address and zip code_____________________________________________________

First Contact Phone ________________________ Name _________________________

Second Contact Phone_________________________ Name ______________________

E-mail________________________________________________________________

Allergies______________________________________________________________

Emergency Contact Phone _______________________ Name _____________________
(Used only if we cannot reach anyone listed above)

People who may pick up child_______________________________________________

To register, mail check and completed form to:

Museum of Anthropology
July 28 Workshop
P.O. Box 7267
Winston-Salem, N.C. 27109-7267