Traveling the Silk Road

Grab a horse, camel, or even a yak and get ready to travel along the ancient trading route that became known as the Silk Road. Beginning in the city of Xian, China, campers will journey through the deserts and over the mountains, making stops in cities along the way before ending their journey in Damascus, Syria. Using music, art, stories, games, and other activities campers will learn about the goods, ideas, and people found all along the Silk Road.

Where: Museum of Anthropology at Wake Forest University

When: 3 one week sessions: July 8-12, July 15-19, and July 22-26.

Time: 9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Ages: Children ages 6-12.

Cost: $125.00 for the week (MOA Friends $100.00).

Fee includes all supplies and daily refreshments. Each session is limited to 15 children. Registration and payment for the program guarantees a spot.

For more information, call 758-5282 or email moa@wfu.edu.
Registration Form

Summer Camp 2013—Traveling the Silk Road

Please check the week you want:

July 8-12 _____    July 15-19_____    July 22-26 _____

Child’s name______________________________________________________________

Age __________________________

Parents’ names____________________________________________________________

Address and zip code_______________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Home Phone ___________________________ Cell Phone__________________________

E-mail__________________________________________________________________

Allergies________________________________________________________________

Emergency Contact Name & Phone ____________________________________________

People who may pick up child_______________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

To register, mail check and completed form to:

Museum of Anthropology

Summer Camp

P.O. Box 7267

Winston-Salem, N.C. 27109-7267