Navajo, Hopi, Zuni: Who Are They?

Have you ever heard of the Navajo, Hopi, or Zuni tribes? Get ready to visit the Southwest and find out who lived in a pueblo, which people are weavers, and what are kachinas. Using music, art, stories, games, and other activities campers will learn about the Navajo, Hopi, and Zuni people found in the United States Southwest.

Where: Museum of Anthropology at Wake Forest University

When: 3 one-week sessions: July 7-11, July 14-18, and July 21-25.

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Ages: Children ages 6-12.

Cost: $125.00 for the week (MOA Friends $100.00).

Fee includes all supplies and daily refreshments. Each session is limited to 15 children. Registration and payment for the program guarantees a spot.

For more information, call 758-5282 or email moa@wfu.edu.
Registration Form

Museum of Anthropology Summer Camp 2014

Please check the week you want:

July 7-11 _____  July 14-18 _____  July 21-25 _____

Child’s name_____________________________________________________________
Age ______________
Parent’s names___________________________________________________________
Address and zip code_____________________________________________________

First Contact Phone ________________________ Name __________________________
Second Contact Phone_________________________ Name _______________________
E-mail_________________________________________________________________

Allergies_______________________________________________________________

Emergency Contact Phone _______________________ Name ______________________
(Used only if we cannot reach anyone listed above)

People who may pick up child______________________________________________

To register, mail check and completed form to:

Museum of Anthropology
Summer Camp
P.O. Box 7267
Winston-Salem, N.C. 27109-7267